

BUILDING OF NEW FACTORY TO START WHEN WEATHER PERMITS

Announcement Regarding Successful Culmination of Plans Made in Letter to Stockholders

CALL FOR FOURTH OF PLEDGE

Preferred Stock Subscribers Asked to Pay Twenty-five Percent by Saturday Feb. 7

TO INCORPORATE BY FEB. 15

Plant to Manufacture Dining Room Furniture will be Steel Construction and L Shape

Subscribers to the preferred stock issue for the dining room furniture factory which will be erected by L. L.
Endres and Robert L. Tompkins received a form letter today announcing that construction of the factory will start as soon as the weather permits and calling for twenty-five percent of the pledge.

The announcement that the new concern, which will be known as the Endres-Tompkins company, had already bought part of the material for the building was the first information given out to the public that the plan to erect the factory had been successfully carried out.

The campaign for the factory was started with a meeting of business men in the court house assembly room November 10 of last year, and since that time untiring efforts have been put forth by the leaders in the Rushville Boosters' Club to finance the factory and assure its erection in Rushville.

Plans decided upon a few days ago call for the construction of a factory containing 59,400 square feet of floor space, whereas the first building contemplated was to have only 50,000 square feet of working space.

The building will be of steel construction, a portion two stories high and the machine room one story, and will be L shape.

The machine room and dry kilns
will be built first so that the company can begin production the first possible moment.

Those who pledged to take a given number of shares of preferred stock are asked to pay one-fourth of their pledge by next Saturday, February 7, as the new company plans to incorporate by February 15.

The open letter sent to subscribers says that they are permitted to pay their entire pledge at this time, if they desire to. Interest at five per cent will begin on the date of receipt of the partial or total payment on the subscription.

Checks for the stock should be made payable either to L. M. Sexton cashier of the Rush County National bank, or Glen E. Foster, cashier of the American National bank, and placed in their hands. They will issue receipts for the payment.

Enclosed with the letter were two copies of the preferred stock agreement which was agreed to by the organizers of the new concern and a committee of the preferred stockholders.

The receipts will be in the form of a preferred stock agreement, signed by the Endres-Tompkins company, which was agreed to by the organizers of the new concern and a committee of preferred stockholders.

The agreement, which will be a part of the preferred stock when it is issued, amply protects the preferred stockholders and includes all of the provisions stipulated by representatives of the company at the original meeting of business men.

The movement for a new factory started when it was learned that Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres had bid on a furniture plant at Shelby-ville and planned to manufacture dining room furniture there.

They were importuned to build a companion plant to the Rushville Furniture company here and consented to do so if the citizens of Rushville would invest $75,000 in preferred stock, which they estimated would give them the necessary capital to erect a factory building.

The letter received by subscribers today was from the Rushville Boosters' Club, and in addition to announcing the steps taken in the factory project, adds that "Rushville citizens are to be congratulated in this movement whereby they will build and operate such a large furniture factory; indications are that the capital will be entirely Rushville money."

"With the starting of the All-Rite company and the Hoosier Dairy Products company this week," the letter continues, "the Rushville Boosters' Club feels proud of the accomplishments in the industrial field of our city. Their work is continuing in this line, and before the end of their first year of existence, they hope to report more additions to our industries, not to mention the many civil and community betterments that they are responsible for."

MISTAKES ICE FOR A CEMENT STREET

Robert Pearsey Drives on to Frozen Mill Race and Other Occupants of Car Get Icy Bath

TWO CHILDREN ARE SAVED

Mrs. Pearsey and Mrs. Harry Clark
None the Worse for Their Thrilling Experience

Mistaking ice on the mill race for a cement street, Robert Pearsey, of this city, drove his Ford touring car into the race near Oneal Brothers store, in South Main street, Sunday night, and he and his wife and Mrs.
Harry Clark and two children, age five and three years, received an icy bath in the water.

No one in the accident was any
the worse because of the thrilling experience today.

Pearsey's presence of mind was responsible for the lives of the children being saved. He carried them both out of the water and the two women were able to wade out as the race at this point is not deep enough to completely submerge a Ford.

Pearsey had stopped at the White Star gasoline filling station for gasoline and oil and thought that he was at the Shell gas filling station at the corner of Main and First streets, one block north.

He has lived here only a few days having moved here last Wednesday from Westport, and was unfamiliar with the streets.

Pearsey drove away from the filling station, going north, and cut
across the lawn in front of the house immediately north of the station, believing that he was turning into First street.

When he saw the mill race covered with ice, it had every appearance of cement pavement and he started down the race.

The machine went only a few feet on the ice until the ice gave way and the car sank.

Every occupant of the car was drenched to the skin from head to foot.

A garage service truck and several men worked for more than an hour in removing the machine from the race. It was wedged between large cakes of ice and resisted efforts to lift it out with a small derrick.

The automobile was not badly damaged. The headlights were bent and broken and the fenders were twisted.

SUIT IS DISMISSED

The complaint on an account and replevin, filed in Justice Stech's court by Spear and Company against Salem Keith, was set for trial this morning, but dismissed, as the defendant paid the bill alleged to be due.

HAS BRONCHIAL PNEUMONIA

Loren, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orme living southwest of the city, is seriously ill with bronchial pneumonia.

RECOVERING NICELY

Mrs. Ray Sample, who was severely burned several weeks ago at her home north of the city, is recovering nicely.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY MAYS INSTITUTE

Glen Ging Chosen President and Mrs. Merle McDaniel Heads Ladies Department

TWO INSTITUTES THIS WEEK

Meetings at Richland Tuesday and Arlington Wednesday to Close
Series in County

The annual Mays institute closed Saturday evening with a large attendance at all sessions, to be followed this week by farmers institutes
at Richland Tuesday and Arlington Wednesday. This will mark the close of the series of farmers' institutes in the county.

Glen Ging was elected president of the Mays institute, succeeding William J. Reeves, and Homer Hall was named vice-president and Ralph Oldham secretary, succeeding Paul
E. McDaniel. Victor Truitt will succeed Fred Reddick as treasurer. Mrs.
Merle McDaniel was elected president of the Ladies department and Mrs. Ross Reeves was named vice president.

The Richland institute will be held at the Methodist church commencing at 10:30 in the morning.
The New Salem orchestra will provide the music. William H. Senour will speak on "Farm Wastes." Mrs.
John W. Spindler, who was on the program at Mays, will also be at Richland and at the Posey institute.

The afternoon program at Richland will include addresses by both speakers again, and music will be provided by the orchestra and by the Richland quartet.

The institute program for Wednesday at Arlington will be held at the Methodist church, with the morning session beginning at ten o'clock, and the speakers will be
Mr. Senour and Mrs. Spindler. In connection with this institute there will be a township exhibit.

The exhibit includes classes for the best corn displays, and also for best potatoes. A boys corn judging contest also will be held. For the women, there will be prizes offered for cakes and pastry, butter, eggs,
and for two classes in sewing.

Looks Like an Early Spring

Mr. Ground Hogg, Chicago, came out of his hole, sniffed, saw no shadow and decided that he would stay out.

"Looks like an early spring",
he said in an interview.

LAST OF THE 37TH VOLUNTEERS

Alexander S. Butler, Richland Township Man, Dies at Hampton, Va.

Alexander S. Butler, a veteran of the 37th Indiana Volunteer Infantry
in the civil war and a former resident of Richland township, is dead at the national soldiers home in Hampton, Virginia, according to word received today from the deceased's nephew, W. M. Butler, 1001
North 64th street, Philadelphia.

Mr. Butler was about 94 years of age and was thought to be the last survivor of this noted fighting regiment, which was recruited largely from Rush county. The deceased was second in a family of nine children born to Thomas and Elizabeth Butler, who settled a quarter section in this county about a century ago.
John Butler of Kingston, Decatur county, is the only survivor, having been the youngest son. The Philadelphia man says he would appreciate having any information he could get regarding his uncle's regiment.

IMPRISONED BY BOULDER 300 FEET UNDER GROUND

Floyd Collins Fighting For Life
Since Friday Noon. May be Rescued by Crew

RUSHED TO CAVE CITY, KY.

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 2—12:30 p. m.—While Lee Collins was appearing over the telephone to Governor W. J. Fields for aid in rescuing his son Floyd, imprisoned three hundred feet under ground since Friday noon, a rescue crew from Louisville arrived. A member of the rescue crew descended into the pit to attempt to rescue Collins at 1:20 p. m.

The rescue crew which was rushed here from Louisville today with compressed air drills to attempt the rescue tried to remove the huge boulder from Collins' foot first.

The machinery was brought one hundred miles by train and was rushed over rough mountain roads
to the pit where Collins was.

Lying flat on his face in a passage way, so narrow no one can reach his foot which is pinned under a huge boulder, Collins was fighting to keep his head out of the gravel pouring from the roof.

Upon repeated appeals for help, Collins' father offered a reward of $500 to the surgeon who will ampu-tate his foot. Before this can be accomplished it is necessary for the rescue crew to cut away the walls of the passage way surrounding him.

FEBRUARY TERM OF COURT IS UNDERWAY

Several Judgments Entered and Minor Motions Entered in Causes

NO HEARING IN CASE TODAY

Elsworth Kiser Defaults and Judgment for Plaintiff, George C.
Wyatt & Co., is Entered

The February term of the circuit court got under way this morning, with the various dockets being gone over, and cases opened up for filing of motions and minor discussions on the issues.

Several court judgments were entered this morning, and many minor motions filed in the various cases prior to the hearing of the causes later in the term.

In the case of the Swine Breeders Pure Serum Company against Charles Morris, a complaint on an account, judgment was entered this morning for the plaintiff in the sum of $992.35 and costs.

In the action of Pinnell-Tompkins
Lumber company against William Frazier, a suit on an account, the plaintiff has dismissed the action.

In the complaint of George C.
Wyatt and Company against Elsworth Kiser, a suit on a note, the case was called for trial this morning, and the defendant defaulted.
The court entered judgment for $276.01
and costs.

Judgment in another case was entered by agreement. In this case William F. Lowe was plaintiff and Archie O. Brooks and Calvin Brooks, defendants. The judgment entered by the agreement was for $870.27 and costs.

The jury has not been called yet for service this week, as several issues will probably be tried by the court and not by the jury, although some of the state cases set for trial later will require the jury.

ELECTED A DELEGATE

A. Gunn Haydon of this city was elected a delegate to the national convention of retail hardware dealers, at the meeting of the Indiana Hardware Dealers Association in Indianapolis last week.

RED MEN TO MEET

Regular meeting of Tan-pah Tribe Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Red Men hall. Degree captain urges all members of the degree team to be present for practice.

FALSE ALARM AT THE FACTORY

Fire Department Pumps Make Run to 12th and Cherry Sts

A fire alarm at ten o'clock Saturday night, which proved to be a false alarm, took the fire trucks to Twelfth and Cherry streets, box 122
at the Rushville Furniture factory.
The basketball tourney had only broken up a short time before, and a large crowd in the business district witnessed the run of the two fire pumps. Hundreds of machines followed them, and fire chief Williamson stated today that if there had been a fire, the machines would have prevented laying hose lines. He called attention to the city ordinance
in which it is unlawful for machines to follow closer than 200 feet, nor park nearer than a block from the scene of the fire.

The run Saturday night was the last for January, which made a total of 9 runs for the new year.

"BONE DRY" BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

State Representatives Also Act Favorably on Cooperative Marketing Measure Today

BOTH TO BE BEFORE SENATE

Senate Debates Moorehead Bus Regulation Bill and it is Made Special Order of Business

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2—Sweeping aside all opposition, dry forces in the house today passed the Right
"bone dry" prohibition bill with but one dissenting vote.

The prohibition bill was called up
for final action immediately after the house by unanimous vote had passed the Murden-Hall cooperative marketing bill backed by the Indiana farm bureau federation.

When the prohibition bill was brought up Representative Right, author of the bill, explained the purposes of the measure. He declared
prohibition agencies for revision of the prohibition law to plug up loop holes in the present statute. There was no debate on the bill.

Representative Schwing of Lake
county, cast the one vote against it.

The bill would reenact portions of
the dry law thrown out by the state supreme court because of insufficient title on acts passed two years ago and provides more stringent penalties for liquor law violations.

The cooperative marketing bill authorizes the formation of cooperative associations of farmers to dispose of their products. Both bills now go to the senate.

Eight representatives were absent when the vote was taken on the prohibition bill.

After an hour of heated debate in the senate on a divided committee report on the Moorehead bus bill, the body found itself in a deadlock and
the question of committee report was made a special order of business for Thursday afternoon.

The Moorehead bill seeks to put
the regulation of busses in the hands of the public service commission.

The majority report of the senate roads committee recommended approval of the Moorehead bill and the minority report recommended indefinite postponement.

Senator Brown of Hebron, author of a rival bill to make the state highway commission the regulating body, opened the attack on the Moorehead measure.

"It is singular that lobbyists for
the interurban and the railroads have fought so hard to have busses regulated by the public service commission," Brown said.

"Every corporation that goes under the public service commission immediately decides it needs an increase in rates and gets it."

Brown contended that the highway commission with its existing field forces is better equipped to regulate bus traffic. A half dozen other senators attacked Moorehead's measure and Moorehead came to the defense of his bill.

When it became apparent that the senate was deadlocked on the question of accepting the committee report, continued on Page Six

EIGHT RECEIVED INTO THE CHURCH

The Rev. Lee Jackson, Pastor of East Columbus Church, Preaches

OTHER CHURCH SERVICES

Monthly Praise Service at St. Paul's
M. E. Church Sunday Evening—
Second Sermon of Series

The Rev. Lee Jackson, pastor of the East Columbus Christian church, delivered two sermons at the Main Street Christian church Sunday, before large audiences, and at the morning services, eight persons were received into membership.

The Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, delivered the second of a series of sermons on the general topic, "The Messages of the Four Greatest Books in the World," and in the evening the monthly service of praise was held.

Regular services were held in all Rushville churches Sunday, with no special emphasis being placed on any subject.

The Rev. R. W. Sage discussed
"Lessons in Brotherhood" at the morning hour at the First Baptist church. The First Presbyterian church began the second century of its existence with appropriate services.

church the Rev. E. G. McKibben spoke on "Abiding in Christ" at the morning hour and "Angel's Food" in the evening.

First Baptist Church

Good attendance and interest were manifested at all services of the First Baptist church. At the morning service the pastor spoke on
"Lessons in Brotherhood," using as his text Matthew 23:8.

He said that he considered it unfortunate that the translators of our New Testament translated the plural of "brother" by "brethren."
The word brethren slides from our tongue today so easily that it means almost nothing, he then added, and continued, "I want that we may substitute the word 'brothers' and take some lessons in brotherhood for a few minutes this morning."

"The first lesson is in the problem of brotherhood. Consider the variety in this congregation and you will immediately see the problem of brotherhood. We have come from different homes. We have had a wide variety of educational advantage, some only having gone a few grades in school, while others have had much broader privileges. Some of us became Christians early in life, while others waited until much later to accept Christ. Some have been Christians many years, others only a few months. Considering these facts it is to be marveled at that we find so much of the feeling of brotherhood and Christian love in any church. Always when we speak of brotherhood we are to remember that we are discussing a real problem."

"The second lesson I would have you learn is that brotherhood demands tolerance. God never made the mistake of making two people exactly alike. There is always another side to every story, to every event, to every person. What difficulties we might overcome, what misunderstandings might be averted if only we saw that 'other side.'"

"A last lesson concerns the basis of our brotherhood. Its foundation must be love. Our likes and dislikes will never make a sure foundation for a Christian brotherhood. Only our overmastering love for the Christ and his kingdom is a sufficient foundation for the Christian brotherhood."

"A Scotch preacher was hurrying over the brow of a hill when he spied down the road a red-faced Scotch lassie toiling up the slope with a bonnie baby boy in her arms."

"Girle, that's a big load for you.
He must be pretty heavy."

"Ah, no, sir. He's not heavy. He's my brother."

"Nothing is heavy if we are brothers. No loads are too great. No sorrows too deep. No joys we cannot share, if we are brothers."

pastor, the Rev. E. G. McKibben

POOR PRODUCING COW IS MENACE

The Cow That Fails to Deliver is the Biggest Draw Back to the Dairy Business

HERDS SHOULD BE CULLED

Cow Testing Association Records Show More Animals of Beef Qualities Raised Last Year

By G. A. WILLIAMS
Dairy extension staff Purdue University

Of all the problems confronting the dairy industry, none presents greater obstacles and at the same time offers wider opportunities than the elimination of the poor producing cow. The present surplus of dairy products now in storage, for the most part, can be laid at her door.

During the past eighteen months, dairying has occupied a unique position. According to figures published by the Bureau of Economics at Washington, dairy products when compared with the pre-war period commanded higher prices than many of the other farm products. These prices induced farmers who had never previously engaged in the dairy business to any extent to purchase a few cows. In many instances the animals purchased were those weeded out of dairy herds. In other cases they were cows which had nursed one or two calves during the year and then stood dry until freshening again.

The majority of this "mushroom" type of dairy cow freshens in the spring, milks for five or six months, and then goes dry until the following spring. This increased production is thrown on the market during the summer season and helps produce a storage surplus.

The dairyman must also assume his share of responsibility in this matter. Many herds have not been culled as closely as they otherwise would, had prices been less attractive. Cow Testing Association records show more animals of beef breeding during the past year than previously.

With corn 30 per cent higher than one year ago and butter fat prices 25 per cent lower, the low producing cow must go. Greater care must be exercised in feeding the dairy herd this winter than last. Unless some system of record has been kept and the lower producing cows disposed of, nearly every herd has one or two cows that are boarders. In 1923, Cow Testing Association records showed the average yearly feed cost to be $67.39 per cow. Records completed so far this year indicate that the average yearly feed cost per cow will be about $75.00. A cow must pay for her feed before she makes any profit for her owner. Figuring the cost of a cow that produces 10 pounds of milk a day, it costs her owner $7.50 a year to keep her. If she produces 20 pounds a day, it costs her owner $15.00 a year. If she produces 30 pounds a day, it costs her owner $22.50 a year. If she produces 40 pounds a day, it costs her owner $30.00 a year. If she produces 50 pounds a day, it costs her owner $37.50 a year. If she produces 60 pounds a day, it costs her owner $45.00 a year. If she produces 70 pounds a day, it costs her owner $52.50 a year. If she produces 80 pounds a day, it costs her owner $60.00 a year. If she produces 90 pounds a day, it costs her owner $67.50 a year. If she produces 100 pounds a day, it costs her owner $75.00 a year.

It is impossible to distinguish between the profitable and unprofitable cow by inspection. There is no known method of measuring dairy capacity. Keeping records is the only way to discover these undesirable individuals. Less than one dairyman in 400 living in Indiana is keeping official or cow testing records. If the each month the time required is very small, but it gives the owner some idea of the producing ability of each cow. Arrangements can often be made with local cream stations and milk plans to test the milk from each cow three or four times yearly.

Incubators and Brooders Chick Feeders and Water Fountains GUNN HAYDON

butterfat at 40 cents per pounds such a cow must produce 187 pounds during the year to pay for her feed.

A comparison of ten poor and ten good cows in the Porter County Cow Testing Association shows how unprofitable it is to keep poor cows. Following is a comparison of the two groups:

Ten good cows produced 11,325 pounds of milk, containing 476.6 pounds of fat, with a feed cost of $96 and earned $203.86 over feed cost. Ten poor cows produced 4,340 pounds of milk, containing 139.5 pounds of fat, at a feed cost of $52.29, with a balance of only $41.22. This makes the difference in cost in favor of the good cows, of $159.54.

One of the good cows produced 2 3-5 times as much milk and 3 2-5 times as much fat as one of the poor cows. She consumed 1 4-5 times as much feed during the year but returned 4 3-5 times as much profit over feed cost. In other words 10 good cows are equal to the following number of poor cows according to the nature of comparison made: Milk-26. Fat-34. Cost of feed-18. Income over feed cost-46.

The men who owned the good cows made money and will continue to do so in spite of the greater spread between the prices of product and feed. The owners of the poor cows lost money in 1924. They will lose more in 1925. Poor cows are the cause, and there is only one cure. "The Poor Cow Must Go."

It is impossible to distinguish between the profitable and unprofitable cow by inspection. There is no known method of measuring dairy capacity. Keeping records is the only way to discover these undesirable individuals. Less than one dairyman in 400 living in Indiana is keeping official or cow testing records. If the each month the time required is very small, but it gives the owner some idea of the producing ability of each cow. ## A Good Start

The Indiana state legislature has made a wholly good start, and if the record of the first three weeks is continued, there will not be as much complaint as usual against the Hoosier legislators.

Statistics of the actual workings of the present session disclose that 20 percent fewer bills have been introduced than in the same period two years ago and that 25 percent of these put in the hopper have been disposed of by one or the other of the two houses.

That the houses of the assembly under the leadership of Harry G. Leslie in the house and Lieutenant Governor Van Orman, have been operating with clock-like precision and harmony has been observed, but here is the record:

Senate bills introduced this year 177; two years ago 227.

House bills presented in 1923 252 and this year the number is only 197.

Thirty-eight bills have been killed 27 in the house and 11 in the senate. House members have withdrawn 17 and senators removed 5 bills. The house has passed 15 bills and the senate 22. Thus 97 of the 377 bills have been acted upon. Of the remaining measures many of them are duplications and others, hobby bills that will die with the session either in committees or in the senate or house safe.

Republican representatives and senators at meetings with the Republican state committee and State Chairman Clyde A. Walb, prior to the session took the position that there should be a let-up on law making and an actual effort made to establish economy in state government.

The record of fewer bills introduced and the fact that no measures calling for appropriations of any considerable amount have crept into the houses so far are indications that the majority members intend to comply with the general policy of the administration of fewer laws and economy.

The budget appropriation bill now being completed by Lawrence F. Orr, budget commission, and Ure M. Frazer, budget clerk, will slash from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 off of the financial requests of state departments and institutions, it is understood.

If all the requests for the elaborate building programs were allowed the state tax levy would have to be increased from 28 to 40 cents. It is the announced policy of the state administration to hold down the next state tax levy to 28 cents or to reduce it.

Not a Preventative

Prevention of automobile accidents is pressing for solution, but compulsory accident insurance is not the answer.

Those who are proposing that careful drivers shall be punished for the misdoings of the reckless do not take into account that compulsion as to insure will not be a preventative but rather will tend to increase accidents.

It would reduce the incentive to careful operation, which results from the present personal liability and which is now an important factor in holding insurance rates to a reasonable level.

It is the other fellow who needs protection; not the irresponsible or intoxicated driver whom compulsory insurance advocates propose to protect against loss.

Some heroic measures will have to be attempted to reduce the all too heavy loss of life that may be attributed to motor traffic.

Stiffer penalties in court, as in the instance of the Indianapolis man who was found guilty of manslaughter when he drove his car into another and killed two persons, and all regulatory legislation framed with the idea of preventing accidents—these are the palliatives that are needed.

Prevention should never be subordinated to indemnity, for then the real purpose to be accomplished is swallowed up in the means used.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON — The arrival of a new ambassador from France, just at the time the United States Senate is "all hot up" over that nation's reluctance to arrange some definite schedule for the payment of its $4,000,000,000 debt to us, has piqued the capital's curiosity.

Many folks wonder just what special significance, if any there is in the termination of Jusseland's tenure as ambassador just at this time, and the appointment of M. Emile Daeschner.

The debt situation they believe has been a deciding factor in the change.

AFTER 22 years of residence in Washington, it would have been mentally and physically impossible for Jusseland to undertake to drive a hard bargain with Uncle Sam in the settlement of this debt.

He knew and recognized not only the problem facing his own country in respect to payment, but he knew and appreciated the position of the American taxpayer, who has been carrying the load of the French loan.

While patriotically presenting the French government's views on this situation, the aged little Frenchman couldn't conscientiously make as strong a plea as his country desired.

THIS inhibition, developed by long residence and increasing years, will not be found present in the new ambassador.

Against the slight stature and bent shoulders of Jusseland Daeschner is a towering erect figure stalwart vigorous in the prime of life. Even in his reticence which he diplomatically maintained following his arrival in the capital there is a force and aggressiveness that was lacking in Jusseland.

Six feet tall or a bit more Daeschner has a personality and bearing that would make him a marked man in any gathering. He has a long face long nose and a long strong chin.

His mustache also is long the ends drawn out into tapering needle-points that accentuate their length.

It's the longest sharpest mustache Washington has seen in ages.

His gray eyes are of the sort novelists describe as "piercing," with just the hint of a quizzical smile indicated in the lines at their corners.

SOCIALLY, the Daeschners bring a welcome addition to the diplomatic set in the persons of two daughters Antoinette and Irene.

Both the girls speak English, and it is expected the big embassy building at the top of Sixteenth street-hill, which has been pretty much of a mausoleum, so far as entertainments for the younger set go, under the Jusselands, may now come to life and provide a setting for lights and laughter and—who knows?—possibly romance.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
Wednesday, Feb. 2, 1910

The residents of Walker township are in the throes of an epidemic. That epidemic is caused by the large number of cases of measles in the township.

W. J. Clark, together with his family, has moved here from their former home in Franklin, Kentucky, and will reside in North Sexton street. Mr. Clark is a brother of C. G. Clark and will be interested in the flouring mill now owned and managed by C. G. Clark & Sons.

Miss Essie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Newhouse, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Sexton sanitarium Monday morning and is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyma Cooley of Connorsville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neutzelher and family in North Morgan street yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews of Richmond were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas in North Harrison street today.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ball and family will leave soon for their new home in Texas.

Guy Abercrombie, retiring assistant postmaster, will rest easy from this day forth as he was yesterday the recipient of a beautiful Morris chair as a gift from the employees of the postoffice.

Mrs. P. H. Chadwick entertained yesterday at her home in North Morgan street for her mother, Mrs. C. H. Snyder, the occasion being her seventy-sixth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Jesse Vance was hostess for the Euchre club at her home in East Fifth street yesterday afternoon.

While in the act of lighting the stove at noon today, Mrs. Edward Lushel of East Sixth street was severely burned about the face.

MILROY CROWNED COUNTY CHAMPION

Wins Tournament by Defeating Moscow Saturday Night in Final at Graham Annex Gym

Uncanny Basket Shooting Marks Contest That is Neck and Neck the Last Half

Milroy high school won the Rush county basketball tourney played in this city, when they defeated Moscow in the final game Saturday night 39 to 37, in a contest featured by the excellent playing of both teams, in which toward the end Moscow failed to annex a goal that would put them in the lead.

The two teams finished the game almost neck and neck, after Milroy had outplayed Moscow in the first half and had gained a ten point lead, 25 to 15. In the last half Moscow came from behind to make things more interesting and added 9 points before Milroy scored, making the count 25 to 24.

From this point on, the game was exciting, but it seemed as if Moscow could not gain a margin, because Milroy would come back and toss in a goal. At several times only one point separated them.

Milroy was presented with the tourney cup, and also the basketball with which the final game was played, and which was given by the tourney. The business men of Rushville also contributed a new basketball to the runner up, so Moscow took home a new ball as their part of the honors.

These two teams displayed remarkable basketball in the final game. Good team work, passing and uncanny goal shooting marked the game. Alexander, center for Moscow led in scoring with 8 goals. Selby for Milroy had 6 and Creed for Moscow 5. In fact, all of the players that took part in the game performed well and did their part in making the points.

Alexander scored first with a field goal for Moscow, and Readmond matched the goal for Milroy. Alexander scored again, and Moore matched it for Milroy. Kinnett and Moore scored for Milroy, and Alexander counted again for his third basket and Creed tied the score at 8 points with two fouls. The game continued to be fast with Milroy outplaying Moscow until the first half ended 25 to 15.

Then in the start of the second half, Moscow assumed the pace setting and took Milroy a fast clip, pulling the score up 25 to 24. Moore fouled and Whisman missed his chance to tie the count. Readmond scored from the field, placing Milroy ahead 27 to 24. Alexander scored but Kinnett came back for Milroy and his team was still holding the 3 point lead, 29 to 26. Creed scored next but it seemed as if every time Moscow scored, then Milroy would come back with one, and the score was 31 to 28.

Coers, floor guard for Moscow, took the ball down the entire length of the floor and made a shot under the basket with Milroy hanging on to him. The goal counted, making the score 31 to 30, and Coers was given two chances on the foul committed as he was making the goal. The little player missed both shots.

Selby and Alexander each scored, making the count 33 to 32. Readmond, Moore and Selby each scored baskets for Milroy that gave them a big lead, 39 to 32, and with only two minutes left to play, Moscow never gave up fighting. Creed counted a goal. Alexander scored one on a foul, making the count 39 to 35. Creed scored another long one pulling his team up to 37. On the next tip-off the ball was just put into play, when the gun sounded, and the game ended 39 to 37, with Milroy being crowned county champs.

Wins Berth as Regular

No big league ball player made more rapid strides in 1924 than John Heving of the Boston Red Sox, pictured above. Heving was practically unknown, merely the third string catcher of a club that wasn't going anywhere in particular. Before the season closed Heving was alternating back of the bat with the Boston regulars. He had practically supplanted the two veterans, Steve O'Neill and Val Picinich. Recently Manager Lee Fohl set at rest the status of Heving for the coming season by announcing that he would be the first string back stop of the Red Sox. "Heving has the makings of a great catcher," says Fohl. "He hasn't quite arrived as yet, but I look for him to go big the coming season. He possesses every mechanical asset plus a wise old head."

LION CUBS MORE THAN DOUBLE SCORE ON MORTON

Local Second Team Evens up for Defeat at Richmond by Winning Curtain Raiser 41 to 20

The Rushville high school second team defeated the Morton second team of Richmond in the preliminary game to the county tourney here Saturday, by the score of 41 to 20.

The game started off fast with Richmond setting a fast pace, and they were in the lead most of the period, until the locals got to working better, and then when they tied the score at 9 points, Richmond was held without any more points until the half ended. The score was 18 to 9 at the half.

A total of 46 chances on fouls were given the teams. Richmond made 10 out of 25 attempts, and Rushville made 11 out of 21 attempts. Several players went out on account of fouls, although the game was not rough. Rushville used 11 players during the game, and gave all of the squad a chance to take part.

The line-up and summary:

RUSHVILLE 41 RICHMOND 20
W. Newbold .....F..... Puckett Joyce .....F..... White Cartmel .....C..... Coe

The Wimbledon tea hour. Tilden said he was in tennis for the good of the game and that he wasn't doing anything for tennis by hob-nobbing with the leaders at Newport and Seabright.

Vinnie Richards failed to show up once at one of the elite tournaments and he was "turned in" to the association. It was learned later that Richards had not entered the tournament and that he couldn't be charged with even a breach of etiquette.

The tennis association, however, uses the money derived from tournaments in which it shares in the receipts for the promotion of tennis. It takes a lot of money to maintain the efficient organization it has, to finance foreign trips of American teams and to promote the Davis Cup competition.

The West Side Club of Forest Hills has to pay for a fine new stadium largely from the proceeds of tournaments held there and it is having a task doing it. But when the stadium is paid for, the club might reduce the price of admission, because the receipts some time will reach the size that will cause speculation as to what is being done with the money.

Chicago—The central A. A. U. indoor track and field meet will be held in this city on March 20, Charles A. Dean, chairman of the championship committee announced yesterday.

Lafayette, Ind.—Walter Trageser, for several years member of the Boston Braves and later of the Phillies, has signed a contract to come to Purdue University as assistant baseball coach. Trageser was a catcher.

Rickey's Choice

Here is Bert Shotton, the only Sunday manager in the major leagues. Branch Rickey, because of religious scruples, stays away from the ball park on that day and Shotton fills in as director of the St. Louis Cardinals. It is understood that Rickey intends to retire shortly and that Shotton is certain to succeed him as the every-day-in-the-week leader of the Cards.

MILROY WON THE MUG. THEY SHOULD AT LEAST LET MOSCOW BORROW IT NOW AND THEN, BECAUSE OF THE CLOSE CALL THEY HAD.

And Arlington can hold the place on their shelf for the cup next year.

After all, Moscow and Milroy both got new basketballs for tourney honors. Milroy won the ball given by the tourney, and the business men of Rushville donated one to the runner up, which happened to be Moscow.

WERENT THOSE TWO TEAMS SHOWING REAL CLASS IN THAT FINAL GAME? WON'T THEY MAKE RUSHVILLE LIONS HUSTLE SOME TO WIN THE SECTONAL?

Alexander, the center for Moscow, just couldn't miss 'em. He was the high point goal getter of the tourney, making a total of 21 field goals Saturday.

The importance of making free throws was emphasized in the final game Saturday night. Moscow missed 5 chances in the last half and one in the first half. Milroy made 5 out of 7, all in the first half and had no chance in the last half.

Raleigh Makes a Repeat

Raleigh still has Carthage's number. The Sir Walters tripped Carthage in their own tourney three weeks ago, and the Blue Birds maintained it was a "duke". Raleigh repeated again in the tourney here just to show 'em that it could be done.

They Play This Week

Beat Vincennes Decisively is the slogan Basketball, is using down at Washington. That B. V. D. slogan sounds like a light weight prediction—but you never can tell.

Rushville has found the sale of bricks rather slow. They started to build a gym over there by selling bricks at ten cents per. At the rate the bricks have been going, there would be another eclipse of the sun before Rushville had a new gym under this plan.

YOU REMEMBER

It hasn't been very many years since, when Shelbyville had the nerve to call a hay loft in a barn down town as their "gym".

Greensburg meets Moscow in a few weeks. Greensburg better begin to worry about it right now, and not take Shelbyville's advice, that the game is nothing to worry over.

That little poem, "Whom do you hate", is now long enough to reach from here to Passaic.

HAVE YOU BOUGHT YOUR BRICK TODAY?

Richmond seconds started off fast, but the Lion's cubs soon conquered them, and the final score was 41 to 20.

Hooray. They Win a Game!

Spiceland won a game at last. After 15 or 16 straight losses, they took the Orphan's Home team as their first victim in a game played in the invitational at Knightstown Saturday. Sorta had an idea that the Lions were waiting for the honor of being their first victims.

Selby of Milroy played a wonderful game against Moscow Saturday night, and landed the ball in the net six times. He and his running mate Kinnett, are two fast forwards.

MAYBE THIS HAD SOMETHING TO DO WITH IT?

Coach Wilkinson of the Milroy squad was all swelled up Saturday. He had the mumps. The team was in charge of "Pro" McCorkle, former back guard on Milroy, and now a student in Wabash college. He probably gave the boys good tourney pointers.

A team that deserves much credit is Moscow. Their fine passing and team work has been worked out by themselves. They have no expert coach. They have no school gym. All of their practice and home games are played in Blue Ridge, four miles

SPORT CHATTER

Chicago—Wayne Munn, new heavyweight match champion will appear here next Tuesday in an exhibition bout—his debut as a title holder. Munn's feature bout comes as an added attraction to the main schedule in which Strangler Lewis and Joe Mondt meet. It will be Lewis' first appearance since he lost to Munn.

Reginald Denny at Castle

Having a proposal to the girl he loves interrupted by the sheriff—arrived to arrest him on a charge of impersonating another woman's husband—that's the bump in the course of true love of Reginald Denny, in his new comedy-thriller, "The Fast Worker" in which he will co-star with Laura La Plante today and Tuesday at the Castle Theatre. And the two women are sisters, too. More complications!

The situation is really something new in fiction; it was conceived by the ingenious George Barr McCutcheon, author of "The Husbands of Edith" from which the new Universal Jewel was adapted.

Denny plays with Laura La Plante as the principal feminine character, and it is the first time the two have appeared together since their sensational success in "Sporting Youth." The story is crammed with thrills—a mad motor dash to escape for a honeymoon, a spectacular collision with a run-away truck, and other bits of excitement alternated with the volunteer's "father's" abortive attempts to feed his small daughter—for Denny is hero who takes a

Clears Complexion

"Oh! how clear and beautiful your complexion is today, my dear!"

THERE is a certain joy—a certain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps, wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates beauty. Pure, clear blood means a clear skin.

S.S.S. is waiting to help you. It will rid your blood of its impurities and give you that clear complexion. Since 1826 S.S.S. has been ridding people of blood impurities, from pimples, from blackheads, boils, eczema and from rheumatism, too. Because S.S.S. is made from fresh herbs and barks, it may be taken with perfect safety. Try it yourself. You will not only look better, but you will feel better, too.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

friends' identity as a favor—and then finds himself saddled with a "wife" and "daughter" in consequence.

Ethel Grey Terry plays the wife in the case and Richard Tucker the husband, who in order to remain incognito and wage a financial fight induces the other man to take on the temporary responsibility of his name and family. The hero upsets wagging tongues when he falls in love with this unmarried "sister-in-law".

"Love's Wilderness" Coming

Hollywood and New York's Broadway unite their dramatic strength in "Love's Wilderness" in which First National will present Corinne Griffith at the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

Supporting Corinne in this picture are two prominent Broadway stage players, who were brought to Hollywood to create the leading male roles. They are Holmes Herbert and Ian Keith.

Another stage celebrity in the cast is Maurice Cannon. Cannon was brought over by First National from France, where he was leading juvenile with the Comedie Francaise in Paris.

Playgoers of older memory will recall two other faces in "Love's Wilderness" reminiscent of stage fame of two decades past. They are David Torrence, brother of Ernest, who was leading baritone in "The Geisha" and other comic operas that were all the rage a generation ago, and Emily Fitzroy, as well known in films now as a character actress as she was on the English and American stage twenty years ago.

This picture presents the lovely Corinne in a new dramatic element—totally different in spirit from that of "Black Oxen" and "Lilies of the Field" in which she scored tremendously. It is the story of a young Southern girl who runs away with an adventurer and takes her through scenes in Canada and the South Sea.

Robert Z. Leonard directed.

BUILDING OF NEW FACTORY TO START WHEN WEATHER PERMITS

Letter to Stockholders

Preferred Stock Subscribers Asked
to Pay Twenty-five Percent by Saturday Feb. 7

Plant to Manufacture Dining Room
Furniture will be Steel Construction and L Shape

Subscribers to the preferred stock
issue for the dining room furniture
factory which will be erected by L. L.
Endres and Robert L. Tompkins received a form letter today announcing that construction of the factory
will start as soon as the weather
permits and calling for twenty-five percent of the pledge.

The announcement that the new
concern, which will be known as the Endres-Tompkins company, had already bought part of the material for the building was the first information given out to the public that
the plan to erect the factory had
been successfully carried out.

The campaign for the factory was
men in the court house assembly
room November 10 of last year, and
since that time untiring efforts have been put forth by the leaders in the Rushville Boosters' Club to finance
the factory and assure its erection
in Rushville.

Plans decided upon a few days
ago call for the construction of a factory containing 59,400 square
feet of floor space, whereas the first building contemplated was to have
space.

The building will be of steel con-
and the machine room one story, and will be L shape.

The machine room and dry kilns
will be built first so that the company can begin production the first
possible moment.

Those who pledged to take a given
number of shares of preferred stock
are asked to pay one-fourth of their
pledge by next Saturday, February 7, as the new company plans to incorporate by February 15.

The open letter sent to subscribers says that they are permitted to
pay their entire pledge at this time, if they desire to. Interest at five percent will begin on the date of receipt of the partial or total payment
on the subscription.

made payable either to L. M. Sexton, cashier of the Rush County National bank, or Glen E. Foster, cashier of the American National bank, and
placed in their hands. They will issue receipts for the payment.

copies of the preferred stock agreement which was agreed to by the organizers of the new concern and a committee of the preferred stockholders.

The receipts will be in the form of
a preferred stock agreement, signed by the Endres-Tompkins company, which was agreed to by the organizers of the new concern and a committee of preferred stockholders.

The agreement, which will be a
is issued, amply protects the preferred stockholders and includes all of the provisions stipulated by representatives of the company at the original meeting of business men.

The movement for a new factory
started when it was learned that
Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres had
bid on a furniture plant at Shelby-ville and planned to manufacture
dining room furniture there.

They were importuned to build a company plant to the Rushville Furniture company here and consented to do so if the citizens of Rushville would invest $75,000 in
preferred stock, which they estimated would give them the necessary
capital to erect a factory building.

The letter received by subscribers
today was from the Rushville Boosters' Club, and in addition to announcing the steps taken in the factory project, adds that "Rushville

citizens are to be congratulated in
this movement whereby they will
niture factory; indications are that
the capital will be entirely Rushville
money."

"With the starting of the All-Rite
company and the Hoosier Dairy Products company this week," the
letter continues, "the Rushville Boosters' Club feels proud of the accomplishments in the industrial field
in this line, and before the end of their first year of existence, they
hope to report more additions to our industries, not to mention the many civic and community betterments

MISTAKES ICE FOR A CEMENT STREET

Robert Pearsey Drives on to Frozen Mill Race and Other Occu-

Mrs. Pearsey and Mrs. Harry Clark
None the Worse for Their Thrilling Experience

Mistaking ice on the mill race for
a cement street, Robert Pearsey, of this city, drove his Ford touring car
into the race near Oneal Brothers
store, in South Main street, Sunday
night, and he and his wife and Mrs.
Harry Clark and two children, age
five and three years, received an icy
bath in the water.

No one in the accident was any
the worse because of the thrilling experience today.

responsible for the lives of the children being saved. He carried
them both out of the water and the
two women were able to wade out as
the race at this point is not deep
enough to completely submerge a Ford.

Star gasoline filling station for gasoline and oil and thought that he was
at the Shell gas filling station at the
block north.

He has lived here only a few days
having moved here last Wednesday
from Westport, and was unfamiliar
with the streets.

across the lawn in front of the
house immediately north of the station, believing that he was turning
into First street.

When he saw the mill race covered with ice, it had every appearance of cement pavement and he
started down the race.

The machine went only a few feet
on the ice until the ice gave way and
the car sank.

drenched to the skin from head to
foot.

A garage service truck and several men worked for more than an hour in removing the machine from
large cakes of ice and resisted efforts to lift it out with a small derrick.

The automobile was not badly damaged. The headlights were bent and broken and the fenders were twisted.

SUIT IS DISMISSED

The complaint on an account and replevin, filed in Justice Storch's court by Spear and Company against Salem Keith, was set for trial this
morning, but dismissed, as the defendant paid the bill alleged to be due.

HAS BRONCHIAL PNEUMONIA

Loren, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orme living south-
bronchial pneumonia.

RECOVERING NICELY

Mrs. Ray Sample, who was severely burned several weeks ago at her home north of the city, is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Merle McDaniel Heads Ladies Department

Series in County

The annual Mays institute closed Saturday evening with a large attendance at all sessions, to be fol-
at Richland Tuesday and Arlington Wednesday. This will mark the close of the series of farmers' institutes in the county.

Glen Ging was elected president of the Mays institute, succeeding William J. Reeves, and Homer Hall
was named vice-president and Ralph Oldham secretary, succeeding Paul
E. McDaniel. Victor Truitt will succeed Fred Reddick as treasurer. Mrs.
Merle McDaniel was elected president of the Ladies department and Mrs. Ross Reeves was named vice president.

The Richland institute will be
held at the Methodist church commencing at 10:30 in the morning.
The New Salem orchestra will provide the music. William H. Senour
will speak on "Farm Wastes." Mrs.
John W. Spindler, who was on the program at Mays, will also be at Richland and at the Posey institute.

The afternoon program at Rich-
land will include addresses by both speakers again, and music will be provided by the orchestra and by the Richland quartet.

The institute program for Wednesday at Arlington will be held at
the Methodist church, with the
morning session beginning at ten o'clock, and the speakers will be
Mr. Senour and Mrs. Spindler. In connection with this institute there will be a township exhibit.

The exhibit includes classes for
the best corn displays, and also for
best potatoes. A boys corn judging contest also will be held. For the
for cakes and pastry, butter, eggs,

Alexander S. Butler, Richland Township Man, Dies at Hampton, Va.

Alexander S. Butler, a veteran of
the 37th Indiana Volunteer Infantry
in the civil war and a former resident of Richland township, is dead
at the national soldiers home in Hampton, Virginia, according to
word received today from the deceased's nephew, W. M. Butler, 1001
North 64th street, Philadelphia.

Mr. Butler was about 94 years of age and was thought to be the last
survivor of this noted fighting regiment, which was recruited largely
was second in a family of nine children born to Thomas and Elizabeth Butler, who settled a quarter section
in this county about a century ago.
John Butler of Kingston, Decatur
county, is the only survivor, having been the youngest son. The Philadelphia man says he would appreciate having any information he
ment.

Floyd Collins Fighting For Life
Since Friday Noon, May be Rescued by Crew

RUSHED TO CAVE CITY, KY.

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 2—12:30 p. m.—While Lee Collins was appealing over the telephone to Governor W. J. Fields for aid in rescuing his son Floyd, imprisoned three hundred
feet under ground since Friday
noon, a rescue crew from Louisville
arrived. A member of the rescue
crew descended into the pit to attempt to rescue Collins at 1:20 p. m.

The rescue crew which was rushed here from Louisville today with
compressed air drills to attempt the
rescue tried to remove the huge
boulder from Collins' foot first.

hundred miles by train and was rushed over rough mountain roads
to the pit where Collins was.

Lying flat on his face in a passage way, so narrow no one can
reach his foot which is pinned under
a huge boulder, Collins was fighting
to keep his head out of the gravel
pouring from the roof.

Upon repeated appeals for help, Collins' father offered a reward of $500 to the surgeon who will ampu-tate his foot. Before this can be accomplished it is necessary for the rescue crew to cut away the walls of the passage way surrounding him.

FEBRUARY TERM OF COURT IS UNDERWAY

Several Judgments Entered and

NO HEARING IN CASE TODAY

ment for Plaintiff, George C.
Wyatt & Co., is Entered

The February term of the circuit court got under way this morning,
with the various dockets being gone
over, and cases opened up for filing
of motions and minor discussions on
the issues.

Several court judgments were entered this morning, and many minor
motions filed in the various cases
prior to the hearing of the causes
later in the term.

Pure Serum Company against Charles Morris, a complaint on an
account, judgment was entered this
of $992.35 and costs.

In the action of Pinnell-Tompkins
Lumber company against William Frazier, a suit on an account, the
plaintiff has dismissed the action.

In the complaint of George C.
Wyatt and Company against El-
sworth Kiser, a suit on a note, the
case was called for trial this morning, and the defendant defaulted.
The court entered judgment for $276.01
and costs.

Judgment in another case was entered by agreement. In this case William F. Lowe was plaintiff and Archie O. Brooks and Calvin Brooks, defendants. The judgment entered by the agreement was for $870.27 and costs.

The jury has not been called yet for service this week, as several issues will probably be tried by the court and not by the jury, although
some of the state cases set for trial
later will require the jury.

ELECTED A DELEGATE

A. Gunn Haydon of this city was elected a delegate to the national convention of retail hardware dealers, at the meeting of the Indiana Hardware Dealers Association in Indianapolis last week.

RED MEN TO MEET

Regular meeting of Tan-
pah Tribe Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Red Men hall. Degree captain urges
all members of the degree
team to be present for

FALSE ALARM AT THE FACTORY

Fire Department Pumpers Make Run
to 12th and Cherry Sts

A fire alarm at ten o'clock Saturday night, which proved to be a false alarm, took the fire trucks to Twelfth and Cherry streets, box 122
at the Rushville Furniture factory.
The basketball tourney had only
broken up a short time before, and
a large crowd in the business district witnessed the run of the two fire pumpers. Hundreds of machines followed them, and fire chief Williamson stated today that if there had been a fire, the machines would
have prevented laying hose lines. He called attention to the city ordinance
in which it is unlawful for machines
to follow closer than 200 feet, nor
park nearer than a block from the scene of the fire.

The run Saturday night was the last for January, which made a to-

"BONE DRY" BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

State Representatives Also Act Fav-
Measure Today

Senate Debates Moorehead Bus Regulation Bill and it is Made Special

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2—Sweeping aside all opposition, dry forces
in the house today passed the Right
"bone dry" prohibition bill with but
one dissenting vote.

The prohibition bill was called up
for final action immediately after
the house by unanimous vote had passed the Mendenhall cooperative marketing bill backed by the Indiana
farm bureau federation.

When the prohibition bill was
brought up Representative Right, author of the bill, explained the purposes of the measure. He declared
prohibition agencies for revision of
the prohibition law to plug up "loop
holes" in the present statute. There was no debate on the bill.

Representative Schwing of Lake
county, cast the one vote against it.
The bill would reenact portions of
the dry law thrown out by the
state supreme court because of insufficient title on acts passed two
years ago and provides more stringent penalties for liquor law violations.

The cooperative marketing bill authorizes the formation of cooperative associations of farmers to dispose of their products. Both bills
now go to the senate.

Eight representatives were absent
when the vote was taken on the prohibition bill.

After an hour of heated debate in
the senate on a divided committee
report on the Moorehead bus bill, the
body found itself in a deadlock and
the question of committee report
was made a special order of business for Thursday afternoon.

The Moorehead bill seeks to put
the regulation of busses in the hands of the public service commission.

The majority report of the senate
roads committee recommended approval of the Moorehead bill and the minority report recommended indefinite postponement.

Senator Brown of Hebron, author
of a rival bill to make the state highway commission the regulating
body, opened the attack on the Moorehead measure.

"It is singular that lobbyists for
the interurban and the railroads
have fought so hard to have busses regulated by the public service commission," Brown said.

"Every corporation that goes under the public service commission immediately decides it needs an increase in rates and gets it."

Brown contended that the highway
commission with its existing field
forces is better equipped to regulate bus traffic. A half dozen other senators attacked Moorehead's measure and Moorehead came to the defense of his bill.

When it became apparent that the senate was deadlocked on the ques-

The Rev. Lee Jackson, Pastor of

Monthly Praise Service at St. Paul's
M. E. Church Sunday Evening—

The Rev. Lee Jackson, pastor of the East Columbus Christian church,
delivered two sermons at the Main Street Christian church Sunday, before large audiences, and at the

The Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, delivered the second of a series of sermons on the general topic, "The Messages of the Four Greatest Books in the World," and in the evening the monthly service of praise was held.

Regular services were held in all Rushville churches Sunday, with no special emphasis being placed on any subject.

The Rev. R. W. Sage discussed
"Lessons in Brotherhood" at the morning hour at the First Baptist church. The First Presbyterian church began the second century of its existence with appropriate services.

church the Rev. E. G. McKibben
spoke on "Abiding in Christ" at the morning hour and "Angel's Food" in

First Baptist Church

Good attendance and interest
were manifested at all services of the First Baptist church. At the morning service the pastor spoke on
his text Matthew 23:8.

He said that he considered it unfortunate that the translators of
our New Testament translated the
plural of "brother" by "brethren."
The word brethren slides from our
almost nothing, he then added, and
continued, "I want that we may substitute the word 'brothers' and
take some lessons in brotherhood for
a few minutes this morning."

"The first lesson is in the problem of brotherhood. Consider the variety
in this congregation and you will immediately see the problem of brotherhood. We have come from different homes. We have had a wide variety of educational advantage,
some only having gone a few grades
in school, while others have had much broader privileges. Some of us became Christians early in life,
while others waited until much later to accept Christ. Some have been Christians many years, others only
a few months. Considering these facts it is to be marveled at that we
find so much of the feeling of brotherhood and Christian love in any church. Always when we speak of brotherhood we are to remember that we are discussing a real problem."

"The second lesson I would have
you learn is that brotherhood demands tolerance. God never made
the mistake of making two people
exactly alike. There is always another side to every story, to every
event, to every person. What difficulties we might overcome, what mis-
understandings might be averted if
only we saw that 'other side.'"

"A last lesson concerns the basis
of our brotherhood. Its foundation
must be love. Our likes and dislikes
will never make a sure foundation
for a Christian brotherhood. Only
our overmastering love for the Christ and his kingdom is a sufficient foundation for the Christian brotherhood."

"A Scotch preacher was hurrying
over the brow of a hill when he spied
down the road a red-faced Scotch
lassie toiling up the slope with a bonnie baby boy in her arms.
"Girly, that's a big load for you.
He must be pretty heavy."
"Ah, no, sir. He's not heavy. He's
my brother."

"Nothing is heavy if we are brothers. No loads are too great. No sorrows too deep. No joys we cannot share, if we are brothers."

POOR PRODUCING COW IS MENACE

The Cow That Fails to Deliver is the Biggest Draw Back to the Dairy Business

Cow Testing Association Records Show More Animals of Beef Qualities Raised Last Year

By G. A. WILLIAMS

Of all the problems confronting the dairy industry, none presents greater obstacles and at the same time offers wider opportunities than the elimination of the poor producing cow. The present surplus of dairy products now in storage, for the most part, can be laid at her door.

During the past eighteen months, dairying has occupied a unique position. According to figures published by the Bureau of Economics at Washington, dairy products when compared with the pre-war period commanded higher prices than many of the other farm products. These prices induced farmers who had never previously engaged in the dairy business to any extent to purchase a few cows. In many instances the animals purchased were those weeded out of dairy herds. In other cases they were cows which had nursed one or two calves during the year and then stood dry until freshening again. The majority of this "mush-room" type of dairy cow freshens in the spring, milks for five or six months, and then goes dry until the following spring. This increased production is thrown on the market during the summer season and helps produce a storage surplus.

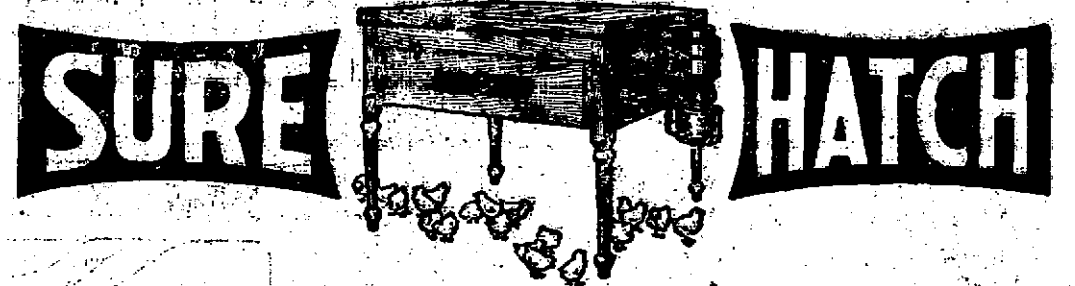

The dairyman must also assume his share of responsibility in this matter. Many herd have not been culled as closely as they otherwise would, had prices been less attractive. Cow Testing Association records show more animals of beef breeding during the past year than previously.

With corn 30 per cent higher than one year ago and butter fat prices 25 per cent lower, the low producing cow must go. Greater care must be exercised in feeding the dairy herd this winter than last. Unless some system of record has been kept and the lower producing cows disposed of, nearly every herd has one or two cows that are boarders. In 1923, Cow Testing Association records showed the average yearly feed cost to be $67.39 per cow. Records completed so far this year indicate that the average yearly feed cost per cow will be about $75.00. A cow must pay for her feed before she makes any profit for her owner. Figuring

butterfat at 40 cents per pounds such a cow must produce 187 pounds during the year to pay for her feed.

A comparison of ten poor and ten good cows in the Porter County Cow Testing Association shows how unprofitable it is to keep poor cows. Following is a comparison of the two groups:

Ten good cows produced 11,325 pounds of milk, containing 476.6 pounds of fat, with a feed cost of $96 and earned $203.86 over feed cost. Ten poor cows produced 4,340 pounds of milk, containing 130.5 pounds of fat, at a feed cost of $52.29, with a balance of only $14.22. This makes the difference in cost in favor of the good cows, of $159.54.

One of the good cows produced 2 3-5 times as much milk and 3 2-5 times as much fat as one of the poor cows. She consumed 1 4-5 times as much feed during the year but returned 4 3-5 times as much profit over feed cost. In other words 10 good cows are equal to the following number of poor cows according to the nature of comparison made: Milk-26. Fat-34. Cost of feed-18. Income over feed cost-46.

The men who owned the good cows made money and will continue to do so in spite of the greater spread between the prices of product and feed. The owners of the poor cows lost money in 1924. They will lose more in 1925. Poor cows are the cause, and there is only one cure. "The Poor Cow Must Go."

Distinction

It isn't often that courts of half a state are dominated by jurists from one family. Yet west Texas has Judges J. F. Sutton, 34, and C. R. Sutton, 37, brothers, who will on Jan. 1 take jurisdiction over 28,364 miles, a territory as large as seven eastern states, with plenty to spare. And in addition to having jurisdiction of the largest territory the brothers are among the youngest jurists in the United States.

A Good Start

The Indiana state legislature has made a wholly good start, and if the record of the first three weeks is continued, there will not be as much complaint as usual against the Hoosier legislators.

Statistics of the actual workings of the present session disclose that 20 percent fewer bills have been introduced than in the same period two years ago and that 25 percent of these put in the hopper have been disposed of by one or the other of the two houses.

That the houses of the assembly under the leadership of Harry G. Leslie in the house and Lieutenant Governor Van Orman, have been operating with clock-like precision and harmony has been observed, but here is the record:

House bills presented in 1923 252 and this year the number is only 197.

Thirty-eight bills have been killed 27 in the house and 11 in the senate. House members have withdrawn 17 and senators removed 5 bills. The house has passed 15 bills and the senate 22. Thus 97 of the 377 bills have been acted upon. Of the remaining measures many of them are duplications and others hobby bills that will die with the session either in committees or in the senate or house safe.

Republican representatives and senators at meetings with the Republican state committee and State Chairman Clyde A. Wall, prior to the session took the position that there should be a let-up on law making and an actual effort made to establish economy in state government.

The record of fewer bills introduced and the fact that no measures calling for appropriations of any considerable amount have crept into the houses so far are indications that the majority members intend to comply with the general policy of the administration of fewer laws and economy.

The budget appropriation bill now being completed by Lawrence F. Orr, budget commission, and Ure M. Frazer, budget clerk, will slash from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 off of the financial requests of state departments and institutions, it is understood.

If all the requests for the elaborate building programs were allowed the state tax levy would have to be increased from 28 to 40 cents. It is the announced policy of the state administration to hold down the next state tax levy to 28 cents or to reduce it.

Not a Preventative

Prevention of automobile accidents is pressing for solution, but compulsory accident insurance is not the answer.

Those who are proposing that careful drivers shall be punished for the misdoings of the reckless do not take into account that compulsion as to insure will not be a preventative but rather will tend to increase accidents.

It would reduce the incentive to careful operation, which results from the present personal liability and which is now an important factor in holding insurance rates to a reasonable level.

It is the other fellow who needs protection; not the irresponsible or intoxicated driver whom compulsory insurance advocates propose to protect against loss.

Some heroic measures will have to be attempted to reduce the all too heavy loss of life that may be attributed to motor traffic.

Stiffer penalties in court, as in the instance of the Indianapolis man who was found guilty of manslaughter when he drove his car into another and killed two persons, and all regulatory legislation framed with the idea of preventing accidents—these are the palliatives that are needed.

Prevention should never be subordinated to indemnity, for then the real purpose to be accomplished is swallowed up in the means used.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — The arrival of a new ambassador from France just at the time the United States Senate is "up" over that nation's reluctance to arrange some definite schedule for the payment of its $4,000,000,000 debt to us, has played the cap state's curiosity.

Many folks wonder just what significance, if any, there is in the termination of Jeanrenaud's tenure as ambassador just at this time, and the appointment of M. Emile Daeuchner.

The debt situation, they believe, has been a deciding factor in the change.

AFTER 22 years of residence in Washington, it would have been mentally and physically impossible for Jeanrenaud to undertake to drive a hard bargain with Uncle Sam in the settlement of this debt.

He knew and recognized not only the problem facing his own country in respect to payment, but he knew and appreciated the position of the American taxpayer, who has been carrying the load of the French loan.

While patriotically presenting the French government's views on this situation, the aged little Frenchman couldn't conscientiously make as strong a plea as his country desired.

His resignation, developed by long residence and increasing age, will not be found regrettable.

Milroy high school won the Rush county basketball tourney played in this city, when they defeated Moscow in the final game Saturday night 39 to 37, in a contest featured by the excellent playing of both teams, in which toward the end Moscow failed to amass a goal that would put them in the lead.

The two teams finished the game almost neck and neck, after Milroy had outplayed Moscow in the first half and had gained a ten point lead, 25 to 15. In the last half Moscow came from behind to make things more interesting and added 9 points before Milroy scored, making the count 25 to 24.

From this point on, the game was exciting, but it seemed as if Moscow could not gain a margin, because Milroy would come back and toss in a goal. At several times only one point separated them.

Milroy was presented with the tourney cup, and also the basketball with which the final game was played, and which was given by the tourney. The business men of Rushville also contributed a new basketball to the runner up, so Moscow took home a new ball as their part of the honors.

These two teams displayed remarkable basketball in the final game. Good team work, passing and uncanny goal shooting marked the game. Alexander, center for Moscow led in scoring with 8 goals. Selby for Milroy had 6 and Creed for Moscow 5. In fact, all of the players that took part in the game performed well and did their part in making the points.

Alexander scored first with a field goal for Moscow, and Readmond matched the goal for Milroy. Alexander scored again, and Moore matched it for Milroy. Kinnet and Moore scored for Milroy, and Alexander counted again for his third basket and Creed tied the score at 8 points with two fouls. The game continued to be fast with Milroy outplaying Moscow until the first half ended 25 to 15.

Then in the start of the second half, Moscow assumed the pace setting and took Milroy a fast clip, pulling the score up 25 to 24. Moore fouled and Whisman missed his chance to tie the count. Readmond scored from the field, placing Milroy ahead 27 to 24. Alexander scored but Kinnet came back for Milroy and his team was still holding the 3 point lead, 29 to 26. Creed scored next but it seemed as if every time Moscow scored, then Milroy would come back with one, and the score was 31 to 28.

Coers, floor guard for Moscow, took the ball down the entire length of the floor and made a shot under the basket with Milroy hanging on to him. The goal counted, making the score 31 to 30, and Coers was given two chances on the foul committed as he was making the goal. The little player missed both shots.

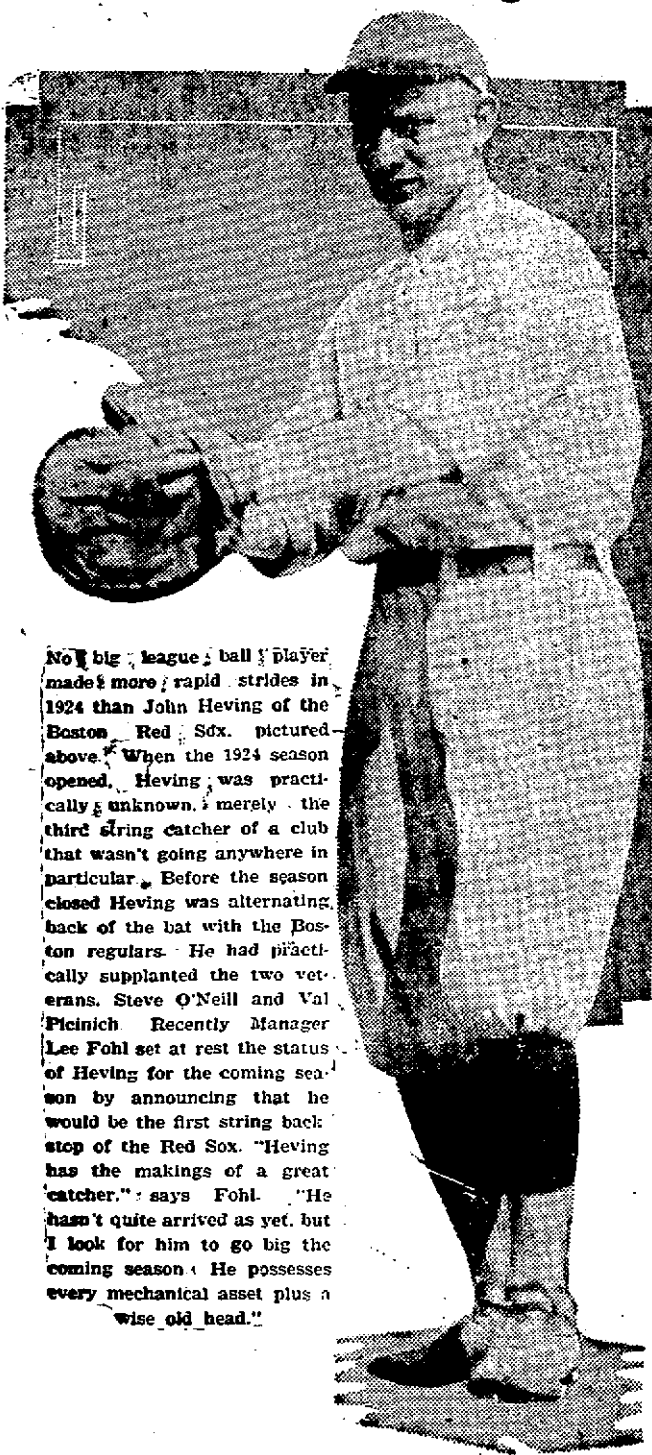

Selby and Alexander each scored, making the count 33 to 32. Readmond, Moore and Selby each scored baskets for Milroy that gave them a big lead, 39 to 32, and with only two minutes left to play, Moscow never gave up fighting. Creed counted a goal, Alexander scored one on a foul, making the count 39 to 35. Creed scored another long one pulling his team up to 37. On the next tip-off the ball was just put into play, when the gun sounded, and the game ended 39 to 37, with Milroy being crowned county champs.

The line-up and summary: MILROY 39 MOSCOW 37. Kinnet, Selby, Moore, Readmond, Archey. Substitutions, Moscow, Headlee, Field goals, Kinnet, 3, Selby 6, Moore 4, Readmond 4, Thompson, Creed 5, Alexander 8, Coers, Headlee, Foul goals, Kinnet, Selby 2, Moore, Readmond, Creed 4, Alexander. Referee Bills, umpire Morrison.

The summary of the semi-finals are as follows:

Moscow 32; Raleigh 15. Thompson, Creed, Alexander, Coers, Whisman. Walker, Craig, Newkirk, Bunyard, Gwinup.

Wins Berth as Regular

No big league ball player made more rapid strides in 1924 than John Heving of the Boston Red Sox, pictured above. When the 1924 season opened, Heving was practically unknown, merely the third string catcher of a club that wasn't going anywhere in particular. Before the season closed Heving was alternating back of the bat with the Boston regulars. He had practically supplanted the two veterans, Steve O'Neill and Val Picinich. Recently Manager Lee Fohl set at rest the status of Heving for the coming season by announcing that he would be the first string backstop of the Red Sox. "Heving has the makings of a great catcher," says Fohl. "He hasn't quite arrived as yet, but I look for him to go big the coming season. He possesses every mechanical asset plus a wise old head."

Curb Amateur Sport Promoter

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 2.—When the rules that govern amateur sport are being changed to draw tighter and stricter interpretations of what constitutes an amateur athlete, there should be a rule considered that would define an amateur promoter. If there is a limit placed upon what a tennis player, a golf player or a track athlete can ask as expense money for engaging in amateur competition, there should be a limit set for the money that the promoting club can make out of the athletes.

The United States Lawn Tennis Association insists upon the right to tell tennis players how they cannot capitalize on the reputation he has earned on the tennis court and the association at the same time should see that its affiliated clubs do not capitalize on the reputation of star players.

The tennis association is not picked out as a target in this connection. The same holds good for the United States Golf Association and the Amateur Athletic Union. The golf association is not as radical as the tennis association in dictating the economic affairs of its constituents, but big money gates are of prospect of the near future, if they haven't been in the past.

When the Tilden controversy was waging in the tennis association, friends of the world's champion charged that a certain clique of the association had set out to get Tilden, because he had refused to compete in several of the fashionable invitation tournaments that are classic events on society's summer program.

Several of these clubs assumed the right to announce Tilden, Richards and other star players as entries in their tournament without receiving entries from the players. Tilden insisted that he had the right to make his own schedule and that he wasn't a dummy that could be passed around from place to place where his presence would do the most good in drawing a crowd.

Instead of entering the fashionable invitation tournaments at Newport, Seabright, Nassau and other society gathering places, Tilden decided upon exhibition tours that would take him to places where so much wasn't known about tennis and where star players were not so many actors or servants called upon to furnish an excuse for society to display clothes and consume tea at

46 FOULS ARE COMMITTED

The Rushville high school second team defeated the Morton second team to the county tourney here Saturday, by the score of 41 to 20.

The game started off fast with Richmond setting a fast pace, and they were in the lead most of the period, until the locals got to working better, and then when they tied the score at 9 points, Richmond was held without any more points until the half ended. The score was 18 to 9 at the half.

A total of 46 chances on fouls were given the teams. Richmond made 10 out of 25 attempts, and Rushville made 11 out of 21 attempts. Several players went out on account of fouls, although the game was not rough. Rushville used 11 players during the game, and gave all of the squad a chance to take part.

The line-up and summary: RUSHVILLE 41 RICHMOND 20. W. Newbold, Puckett, Joyce, White, Cartmel, Coe, Winkler, Parker, Elliott, Daily.

Substitutions, Rushville, Osborne, Readle, Davison, Caldwell, Cherry, Wainwright, Richmond, Young, Federico. Field goals, Newbold 3, Joyce, Cartmel 3, Winkler, Elliott, Osborne, 4, Davison, Wainwright, Puckett 2, White, Coe 2, Foul goals, Newbold 2, Joyce 2, Cartmel, Elliott, Osborne, Readle, Davison 2, Wainwright, Puckett, White, Coe 3, Daily 5. Referee Tittsworth.

The Wimbledon tea hour, Tilden said he was in tennis for the good of the game and that he wasn't doing anything for tennis by hobnobbing with the leaders at Newport and Seabright.

Vinnie Richards failed to show up once at one of the elite tournaments and he was "turned in" to the association. It was learned later that Richards had not entered the tournament and that he couldn't be charged with even a breach of etiquette.

The tennis association, however, uses the money derived from tournaments in which it shares in the receipts for the promotion of tennis. It takes a lot of money to maintain the efficient organization it has, to finance foreign trips of American teams and to promote the Davis Cup competition.

The West Side Club of Forest Hills has to pay for a fine new stadium largely from the proceeds of tournaments held there and it is having a task doing it. But when the stadium is paid for, the club might reduce the price of admission, because the receipts some time will reach the size that will cause speculation as to what is being done with the money.

Chicago.—The central A. A. U. indoor track and field meet will be held in this city on March 20, Charles A. Dean, chairman of the championship committee announced yesterday.

Lafayette, Ind.—Walter Tregesser, for several years member of the Boston Braves and later of the Phillies, has signed a contract to come to Purdue University as assistant baseball coach. Tregesser was a catcher.

Rickey's Choice

Here is Bert Shotton, the only Sunday manager in the major leagues, Branch Rickey, because of religious scruples, stays away from the ball park on that day and Shotton fills in as director of the St. Louis Cardinals. It is understood that Rickey intends to retire shortly and that Shotton is certain to succeed him as the every-day-in-the-week leader of the Cards.

MILROY WON THE MUG. THEY SHOULD AT LEAST LET MOSCOW BORROW IT NOW AND THEN, BECAUSE OF THE CLOSE CALL THEY HAD.

And Arlington can hold the place on their shelf for the cup next year.

WEREN'T THOSE TWO TEAMS SHOWING REAL CLASS IN THAT FINAL GAME? WON'T THEY MAKE RUSHVILLE LOOKS HUSTLE SOME TO WIN THE SECOND?

Alexander, the center for Moscow, just couldn't miss 'em. He was the high point goal getter of the tourney, making a total of 21 field goals Saturday.

The importance of making free throws was emphasized in the final game Saturday night. Moscow missed 5 chances in the last half and one in the first half. Milroy made 5 out of 7, all in his first half and had no chance in the last half.

Raleigh Makes a Repeat. Raleigh still has Carthage's number. The Sir Walters tripped Carthage in their own tourney three weeks ago, and the Blue Birds maintained it was a "fluke". Raleigh repeated again in the tourney here just to show 'em that it could be done.

They Play This Week. Beat Vincennes Decisively in the slogan Basketball, is using down at Washington. That B. V. D. slogan sounds like a light weight prediction—but you never can tell.

THIS FELLOW DON'T KNOW THAT THE GYM IS ABOUT READY TO DEDICATE. Rushville has found the sale of bricks rather slow. They started to build a gym over there by selling bricks at ten cents per. At the rate the bricks have been going, there would be another eclipse of the sun before Rushville had a new gym under this plan.

YOU REMEMBER. It hasn't been very many years since, when Shelbyville had the nerve to call a hay loft in a barn down town as their "gym".

Greensburg meets Moscow in a few weeks. Greensburg better begin to worry about it right now, and not take Shelbyville's advice, that the game is nothing to worry over.

That little poem, "Whom do you hate", is now long enough to reach from here to Passaic.

HAVE YOU BOUGHT YOUR BRICK TODAY?

Richmond seconds started off fast, but the Lion's cubs soon conquered them, and the final score was 41 to 20.

Hooray, They Win a Game! Spieckland won a game at last. After 15 or 16 straight losses, they took the Orphan's Home team as their first victim in a game played in the invitation at Knightstown Saturday. Sorta had an idea that the Lions were waiting for the honor of being their first victims.

Selby of Milroy played a wonderful game against Moscow Saturday night, and landed the ball in the net six times. He and his running mate Kinnet, are two fast forwards.

Coach Winkinson of the Milroy squad was all swelled up Saturday. He hid the mumps. The team was in charge of "Proc" McCorkle, former back guard on Milroy, and now a student in Wabash college. He probably gave the boys good tourney pointers.

A team that deserves much credit is Moscow. Their fine passing and team work has been worked out by themselves. They have no expert coach. They have no school gym. All of their practice and home games are played in Blue Ridge, four miles

Chicago.—Wayne Munn, new heavyweight match champion will appear here next Tuesday in an exhibition bout—his debut as a title holder. Munn's feature bout comes as an added attraction to the main schedule in which Strangler Lewis and Joe Mondt meet. It will be Lewis' first appearance since he lost to Munn.

Chicago.—Heinie Engel, Dubuque, Ia., grappler is here to put in a claim for the middleweight championship. He recently was victor in a one fall match over Lou Talabar, champion, at catch weights. Referee Johnny McMahon ruled it was not a championship bout. A re-match will probably be the outcome of the squabble.

Madison, Wis.—Paul Hunter has resigned as director of publicity and ticket sales for the U. of Wisconsin athletic department. He has held the job two years.

New York.—Charlie White, Chicago lightweight, who met eleven champions in the ring during his career, has retired to pursue private business, his manager, Ike Dorgan announced here. Benny Leonard and Pal Moran were the only ones who stopped him. White engaged in 181 contests and was credited with 61 knockouts.

Revenge is sweet, but so far we haven't tasted any.

Shootin' 'em's pets, Shortridge, failed to keep up their winning streak Friday night, as Martinsville won out. Like all long winning streaks, they are bound to break at some time.

The little forward by the name of Walker on the Raleigh team, was one of the most valuable players on any team.

O BOY, IF ONE COULD ONLY PICK A TEAM FROM ALL OVER RUSH COUNTY, THE STATE TITLE WOULD NEVER BE IN DOUBT.

Readle of Arlington is another player that would make a real running mate for Walker of Raleigh.

Before we go any further, Fred Bills calls time out. He says "you can put me down for $25 worth of bricks, whenever you are ready to build that gym in Rushville."

Fred lives in Washington township but has the spirit at heart for a new gym here. Thanks Fred here is hoping that we can call for your donation when the time comes.

Speaking of officials, Bills and Morrison performed to the satisfaction of all during the tourney, and no complaints were heard. There were no signs at any time of anyone razzing a decision, and this sure speaks highly for Rush county sportsmanship.

You can call it a loving cup or mug, but one youngster of Milroy, when he saw Mr. Butler bringing it in before the game, asked him, "Say Mister, is that the pitcher?"

Siler, forward of Carthage, displayed the best head work of any player, by following in shots under the basket. He made five goals in the game with Raleigh.

They Won't Have to Best. "It's the Connersville Ikimiks tomorrow night, or bust" said Markin 'em up of Newcastle Thursday night.

NO BON-FIRE SATURDAY. Shelbyville played two week end.

The attendants were Price Cox, brother of the bride, and Miss Sarah Whitesides. The ring service was used. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will live in Connersville where the bridegroom is employed at the Rex Manufacturing Company.

Miss Donnan met her class in Literature Saturday afternoon in the assembly room of the court house and as previously announced, talked of Amy Lowell's new book on Keats, which is to appear within the next few weeks. Miss Donnan had the pleasure of seeing and reading the advance sheets. Though there are to be two volumes of six hundred pages each, Miss Donnan said one would not wish it shorter. Miss Lowell gives much hitherto unknown about Keats, and emphasizes not the tragedies of the young life which went out at twenty-five, but the years of happiness he knew, his personal charm and his joy in creative work. After the intermission, Miss Donnan gave a study of Mark Anthony's character as shown in the Shakespeare plays, Anthony and Cleopatra and Julius Caesar.

THIS daytime frock is cut on the popular, belted model, but the two rows of fringe about the hem, are a decidedly original touch. The wide scarf of silk printed in batik designs is the Parisienne's way of pepping up a frock that looks too prim and plain

Having a proposal to the girl he loves interrupted by the sheriff—arrived to arrest him on a charge of impersonating another woman's husband—that's the bump in the course of true love of Reginald Denny, in his new comedy-thriller, "The Fast Worker" in which he will co-star with Laura La Plante today and Tuesday at the Castle Theatre. And the two women are sisters, too. More complications!

The situation is really something new in fiction; it was conceived by the ingenious George Barr McCutcheon, author of "The Husbands of Edith" from which the new Universal Jewel was adapted.

Denny plays with Laura La Plante as the principal feminine character, and it is the first time the two have appeared together since their sensational success in "Sporting Youth". The story is crammed with thrills—a mad motor dash to escape for a honeymoon, a spectacular collision with a run-away truck, and other bits of excitement alternated with the volunteer's "father's" abortive attempts to feed his small daughter—for Denny is hero who takes a

Clears Complexion

THERE is a certain joy—a certain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous perhaps, wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that craved for attractiveness—that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates beauty. Pure, clear blood means a clear skin.

S.S.S. is waiting to help you. It will rid your blood of its impurities and give you that clear complexion. Since 1826 S.S.S. has been ridding people of blood impurities, from pimples, from blackheads, boils, eczema and from rheumatism, too. Because S.S.S. is made from fresh herbs and barks, it may be taken with perfect safety. Try it yourself. You will not only look better, but you will feel better, too.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

"Love's Wilderness" Coming

Hollywood and New York's Broadway unite their dramatic strength in "Love's Wilderness" in which First National will present Corinne Griffith at the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

Supporting Corinne in this picture are two prominent Broadway stage players, who were brought to Hollywood to create the leading male roles. They are Holmes Herbert and Ian Keith.

Another stage celebrity in the cast is Maurice Cannon. Cannon was brought over by First National from France, where he was leading juvenile with the Comedie Francaise in Paris.

Playgoers of older memory will recall two other faces in "Love's Wilderness" reminiscent of stage fame of two decades past. They are David Torrence, brother of Ernest, who was leading baritone in "The Geisha" and other comic operas that were all the rage a generation ago, and Emily Fitzroy, as well known in films now as a character actress as she was on the English and American stage twenty years ago.

This picture presents the lovely Corinne in a new dramatic element—totally different in spirit from that of "Black Oxen" and "Lilies of the Field" in which she scored tremendously. It is the story of a young Southern girl who runs away with an adventurer and takes her through scenes in Canada and the South Seas. Robert Z. Leonard directed.

JUDGE BALTZELL WILL HEAR FIRST CASE FEB. 3

Trial Docket for Sessions of Federal Court Opening Feb. 3 Includes Ten Cases

TWO BIG CASES TO COME UP

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2.—The first criminal cases to be heard by Judge Robert Baltzell, new federal judge of the Indiana district, will be called on February 3.

The trial docket for the sessions opening that day includes ten cases—four cases of altering and counterfeiting United States money; three postal robbery cases; two narcotics and one liquor violations case.

The federal grand jury which meets in February is expected to take up a number of minor cases which will come before Judge Baltzell after indictments have been returned but it is regarded as unlikely that any big cases will be before Judge Baltzell until a new district attorney is appointed to succeed Alexander Cavins, who took the post temporarily following the resignation of Homer Elliott.

commandments ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love."

It was shown to be very desirable to abide in the love of Jesus Christ, that it serves to maintain the freedom of soul that becomes ours as a spiritual birthright. Freedom is something that may be lost and should be guarded most carefully, the speaker said. "For freedom did Christ set us free. Be not entangled again with a yoke of bondage."

"Abiding in Christ's love secures for us the advantage of his wise council, his strong protection, his efficient help, and his tender sympathy," the pastor continued. "It also opens up for us a great future. The one whose love we share has all power, is seated on the throne of the universe, is the judge of all the earth, and has promised his people a place around his table at the marriage feast. And his father has said: 'That in the ages to come he may show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness towards us in Jesus Christ.' It is better to abide in his love than to possess all riches and all earthly means of enjoyment."

"Then he shows us exactly how this may be done. His whole program for our lives is laid down in a single sentence. 'If ye keep my commandments ye shall abide in my love.' This means that we should make use of the means of grace—becoming familiar with God's word by constant reading and study—the daily habit of prayer—and attendance on God's worship according to his appointment."

"It means that he is to have the first place in hearts and life. His law should become the supreme law of our life. Our love for him must be greater than our love for any other. 'He that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.' His program should be accounted worthy of precedence over our own program."

"It means that we should be willing to serve him as he may direct by his word and providence. Except we do this we are not 'Soldiers of the cross,' but slackers of the cross. We are not followers of the lamb but of our own inclination."

"Following afar off from Christ is not very satisfactory. Judas tried it and failed. Peter also, and he stumbled. The early church and for a thousand years the world passed under the cloud of the dark ages. Men and women do so today and the church languishes. Come up close. Feel the warmth of his presence and the power of his magnetism."

"Our Lord has set us an example in this regard. 'Even as I have kept my Father's commandment and abide in his love.'"

At the evening service the topic was "Angel's Ford," the second in the series on "The Angels."
